Senior Easter Classic Moves to Suncoast!

High Roller's Senior Classic series started back in 1993 at Showboat, continued through the Castaways years and moved to Sam's Town in 2003.

During those 18 years, the Classic series has paid more than $18 MILLION in prize money to the 50 & Over crowd.

As the series starts its 19th year, the scene switches to Suncoast Hotel, Casino & Bowling Center in the west part of Las Vegas. This 64-lane state of the art center is the host of the Senior U.S. Open and recently the prestigious Junior World Gold event.

Suncoast is the newest Boyd Gaming bowling property, joining Sam's Town, Orleans & Gold Coast, so they know how to treat bowling groups! There is a shuttle available to and from the airport as well as the Strip. Located in the scenic Summerlin section of town, Suncoast is actually the same distance from the Strip as Sam's Town and can be accessed by many major routes such as 95 or 215.

Guests will be amazed at the shopping, restaurants and golf on property and in the surrounding area. Hotel room rates will be very much in line with what has been offered over the years.
